

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
NORTHERN DIVISION

MARK EHIANETA ARHEBAMEN

Plaintiff,

Case Number 11-13927
Honorable Thomas L. Ludington

v.

DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY and IMMIGRATION AND CUSTOMS ENFORCEMENT,

Defendants.

ORDER DISMISSING COMPLAINT WITHOUT PREJUDICE

On September 9, 2011, Plaintiff Mark Ehianeta Arhebamen (“Plaintiff”), an inmate housed in Saint Clare County Jail in Port Huron, Michigan, filed a complaint against the Department of Homeland Security and Immigration and Customs Enforcement. Plaintiff’s complaint, however, is incoherent. The complaint provides no explanation of Plaintiff’s status as an inmate, no information of the proceeding he alleges to contest, and the documents he has furnished provide no additional clarification.

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8, a pleading must provide an explanation of the relief a party seeks and the factual circumstances giving rise to the claim for relief. Plaintiff’s complaint does not meet the basic pleading requirements.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that Plaintiff’s complaint (ECF No. 1) is DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE.
